NEWS OFFICE TURNS OUT ANOTHER GOOD JOB.

The Carlisle directory of the Nicholas Home Telephone Company, is just off THE NEWS' press, and has been delivered to the manager's office in Carlisle.

The book comprises thirty-two pages, and has been pronounced typographically and mechanically perfect by as competent a judge as District Manager J. J. Veatch. THE NEWS has the facilities and the skilled workmen for all classes of typographical work.

NO SLACKERS HERE.

Several Central Kentucky county papers have printed complete lists of those who signed at the recent registration under the drafting law for the army service.

As every man of the legal military age in Bourbon county signed, we can say that all you have to do is to ask a man his age, and if he comes within the limit, you will know that he is not a "slacker." Such a thing as a "slacker" does not exist in Bourbon county.

LET US HELP YOU REDUCE THE COST.

With coal at $7.50 a ton and going higher, and stopping no telling where, it is high time for you to be figuring on how to keep warm and reduce the cost of heating this winter. Everyone who used gas in their furnaces last winter were pleased—both with the heat and cost. The price of gas stays the same. It's the cheapest and best way to heat. Have your piping done now before the cost of piping advances any more. Let us figure on your furnace and piping TO-DAY—it's economy to do it NOW.
